FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.

GEN. BLAIR ON THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

Gen. Blair surprised Washingtonians this morning by an appearance, and the surprise was greater when it was found that he had been quietly at his father's town residence, opposite the War Department, since the day before Christmas. The General was the centre of a large and warm circle of friends at once, and the first visit he has made to the capital since the memorable canvass of last fall was made the occasion of many greetings and inquiries and expressions of regard. The ability with which he has eluded public observation and spent a quiet season of domestic festivity at the adjoining residences of his father and brother, lest to the declaration from him that Gen. Grant himself could not have announced himself more securely, and he was sure didn't feel half so good, on the whole as the man who wasn't elected Vice-President, but who felt sure, nearly all along, that he would be. Gen. Blair declined to discuss the recent canvass, or any of its episodes, but expressed himself convinced that the majority of legal voters in the country were not represented by the party in power, which got itself up by the negro and kept its opponents down by disfranchisement. After all, he said, he was almost sorry he was not elected, because he had long wanted to do several nice things for friends who had stood by him through thick and thin, but who, like himself, must wait. He had come out of the war a bankrupt, and even now his business was gone, and he was solely dependent upon a commissionership of the Pacific Railroad for even a subsistence. In reference to recent issues which had grown up between Grant and the Radicals in regard to the Civil Tenure law, they only serve out that estimate of the General's character which Gen. Blair had been frank and free to acknowledge on the stump concerning the Republican candidate. He stated that Gen. Grant would lead, not follow; and that he would be more likely to demand new powers and exercise all the old powers of his office than to relinquish the exercise of a single prerogative. The General was of the opinion that the liveliest times in political circles were ahead that had been experienced for a good many years. This evening the General left to inspect a new section on the Union Pacific road, more than a thousand miles from Omaha, West.

THE CIVIL TENURE BILL.

A distinguished Democratic Congressman from Pennsylvania to-day expressed the opinion that the Civil Tenure law would not be repealed by the House this session. A careful count before the adjournment, he said, convinced the Democratic members that a decided majority of their Republican associates were opposed to the bill or repeal, and General Butler's having offered it would be the reverse of favorable to success. Some time before recess began, there was a tacit understanding among all the Democratic members that they would do nothing to forward the repeal of the law, because that repeal was, even if meant in good faith, designed to help an administration to which Democrats owed no favors. If the bill to repeal came to a vote, of course Democrats would vote to wipe out the law, against which they were committed on principle; but towards the close of the session, prior to recess, it became evident that no intention to report the bill existed at present. At the re-assembling of Congress, it is likely, says the same gentleman, that the Judiciary Committee will be in no hurry to consider the bill, let alone report it. It is the opinion of the Democratic members of the House Judiciary Committee that no favorable report will be made by the seven Radical members on that Committee. It is likely that Mr. Wilson and three others—Lawrence, of Ohio, Williams, of Pennsylvania, and Boutwell, of Massachusetts—will report adversely to repeal. Woodbridge of Vermont, and Churchill, of New York, are expected to report mildly in favor of a repeal of the law. The democratic members will make no report whatever, and will leave the Radicals to fight it out among themselves. It is conceded that no impetus has been given to the possibility of repeal by the sudden pronunciamento of Grant ordering it to be done. The Senate hopes to be spared the necessity of considering the repeal, because of its probable defeat in the first instance in the House.—Cor. N. Y. World.

FALLEN SOVEREIGNS.

At the moment when the Queen of Spain, who might so easily have retained her throne, is compelled to seek an asylum abroad, it cannot be uninteresting to mention the names of the princes who, within the last half century, by circumstances unforseen or unforeseen, by their own fault or in consequence of unwise resistance, by false calculations or enterprises which could not possibly succeed, have fallen from power, or lost a portion of their authority. The great conqueror of the century, he who transmuted the French Republic into a sort of universal monarchy, Napoleon I, was thrown down definitively in 1815. His brothers, the Kings Jerome and Joseph, had already succumbed. Murat, King of Naples, disappeared soon after. Immediately upon being restored the Bourbon monarchy in Spain began to totter. It lost all its American colonies, which became republics, and Ferdinand VII. was kept on the throne only by the French expedition in 1823. In the following year took place the fall of Iturbide, Emperor of Mexico. The Sultan of Turkey was shortly afterward deprived of Greece, which was proclaimed an independent monarchy on the 3rd. of February, 1830. In the same year fell the Bey of Algiers, and also Charles X, jostled by M. de Polignac and the Ultra Legitimist and Clerical faction. The King of Holland lost Belgium—that is to say, one half of his States—on the 25th. of August, and the deposition of the House of Orange, Nassau was proclaimed at Brussels. The Duke Charles of Brunswick was, on the 7th. of September, 1830, driven from his dominions by an insurrection. The Czar, at the same epoch, lost Poland for a time. In 1833, the too famous Don Miguel, King of Portugal, was compelled to cede the crown to Dona Maria, daughter of Don Pedro, who retains the sovereignty of Brazil. Louis Philippe was sacrificed to the faults and obstinacy of M. Guizot. On the 1st. December, 1848, the Emperor Ferdinand, of Austria, had to abdicate, in order to avoid being expelled. At that epoch Pius IX was brought back to, and has since been supported at, Rome only by French arms. Austria, for a short time, lost possession of Hungary. The King of Prussia, Frederick William IV., threatened all along from 1848, was forced, on the 6th. February, 1850, to take an oath to preserve the Prussian charter. In 1855, Nicholas I died of vexation and wounded self-love, because he was stripped on the road to Constantinople. In 1859, the Duke of Modena, the Duchess of Parma, and the Grand Duke of Tuscany were struck out from the list of reigning princes. Soulouque, the Emperor of Hayt, was hurled from his throne on the 15th. January, 1859. In the following year, Francis II, King of Naples, saw Garibaldi enter his capital on the 7th. September, and again another deposition was announced.—Otho, King of the Hellenes, was driven from his throne by an insurrection in 1862.—Three years later, Prince Couza lost the quasi-sovereignty of Roumania. In 1866 the Emperor of Austria definitely gave up Venetia; the surrender of which may, perhaps, have saved the Empire. In the same year, Prussia overthrew the thrones of Hanover, Nassau, Brunswick, and Electoral Hesse and Maximilian fell in Mexico.

During all this lapse of time no constitutional monarchy has been disturbed—no revolution has taken place in England or in Sweden, where the young dynasty continues; in Belgium the royal house has survived the storms of 1848; so in Portugal; in the United States no President has been overthrown with the exception of the Confederate leader, Jefferson Davis, now engaged in commercial affairs. The military Presidents and Dictators in the South American States have been on the other hand sent adrift, each alternately by the others. Such is a sketch of the downfall of monarchies within the last half century.—Every reader will draw from it the conclusion which is most agreeable to his opinions, be they royalist or in favor of the popular cause. To reproach the latter, however, with so many vicissitudes, would be difficult.—Paris Siecle.

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE CO., N. C.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed the second Wednesday in February.

The Annual Commencement will occur the last Wednesday in June.

REV. T. M. JONES, the former popular and accomplished President at Greensboro and Louisburg Female Colleges, has accepted the Presidency of this school, and will enter upon his duties in February. His long and successful experience his eminent scholarship, and his devotion to the educational interests of the South, forbid any word of commendation.

REV. C. B. RIDDICK, formerly President, is still identified with the operations of the Institution, and retires from the care of the Literary Department, only to devote himself more exclusively to its other interests.

LOCATION not to be surpassed. The celebrated MINERAL WATER an unfailing fountain of health. EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES complete. An extensive APPARATUS and LIBRARY. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS new and of the best style.

Terms moderate as at any other school of similar grade.

Parents wishing to send their daughters will remember that we are on the great line of railroad leading North and South, within less than half-mile of Kittrell's Depot, Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

For other particulars, apply to

REV. T. M. JONES, PRESIDENT,
or, to REV. C. B. RIDDICK,

Oxford Female Academy.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed on Monday, the 4th of January next, under the direction of Miss MARGARET E. MITCHELL, as Principal, aided by Mrs. E. N. GRANT, and other competent Instructors.

It is the determination of the Trustees and Principal that this shall be a School of the best grade

No other guaranty of its character will be asked by those who know Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Grant. But the Trustees deem it right to state that these ladies are daughters of the late Professor Mitchell, of Chapel Hill, and were educated by their father with a view to the profession of teaching, and that they combine, with unusual attainments, a happy faculty for imparting instruction, and a thorough devotion to the business, which they have prosecuted with success for some years.

The undersigned on behalf of the Principal, will furnish circulars stating terms, &c., on application.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D. Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the most LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS ON TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST. JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am't Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The ÆTNA is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000

The only Company that has the Low Participating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1869.

DIGEST OF NEWS.

No regular Gold or Stock quotations on yesterday.

The Supreme Court meets in this City on Monday next. The first day of the Term will be devoted to the examination of applicants for license.

The Governor has issued a proclamation, ordering an election for a member of the House of Representatives, from Pitt County, on the 18th of January, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Richard Short, Esq.

Gov. Vance and Judge Osborne will address the people of Mecklenburg, on Monday, on the subject of Immigration.

The Baltimore Sun mentions, with all gravity, that the State of North Carolina has established a magnificent Park of 8,000 acres, with a Penitentiary in the midst of it! This is a serious joke.

Tuesday last was the anniversary of the sixtieth birth-day of President Johnson.

One of the results of the disturbed condition of affairs in Cuba is that the Sugar crop in the Eastern District will prove a total failure. "It is an ill wind that blows nobody good." This will help the Louisiana planters.

The Petersburg Times (Radical) has an article upon "What it costs to be a Radical in the South." The answer is easy: It costs self-respect and the loss of all good men's esteem.

The New York Journal of Commerce thus concludes a long editorial article:

"Putting this and that together," we are becoming more confirmed in the opinion, several times expressed in the Journal of Commerce, that a rupture between General Grant and the Radical wing of the Republicans is one of the probable events of the future."

A Washington correspondent of one of the New York papers disposes of the Generalship question as follows: "The office of General, especially created for Gen. Grant, is to be abolished this session of Congress, to take effect the 4th of March next. This will leave Gen. Sherman in command of the army, with the rank of Lieutenant-General."

A Savannah paper says that Alexander H. Stephens has been offered $25,000 for his first volume of the War among the States, and that the second volume is rapidly approaching completion.

A Miss Guest, of Texas, "a young lady of standing and culture," being in the habit of wearing a small Derringer pistol, first accidentally shot off two of her own fingers, and subsequently killed a Mr. Lenore, whose Guest she was.

Greeley is very eloquent concerning abuses of the franking privilege. The World intimates that he was silent during the campaign, whilst tons of Radical documents were sent through all the mails from Washington to every part of the country and when Senator Morgan's frank was used to distribute Putnam's Magazine containing a political article. But we can tell both Greeley and the World that this isn't a circumstance to the use which were made of Dowdese's frank. It covered everything, from business circulars down to amorous missives from African swains to sable damsels

The population of the entire world is put down as about 1,350,000,000. If this is a correct estimate, our national debt is more than twice as much as there are men, women and children in the world.

The municipal election took place in Selma, Alabama, on Tuesday. The "treely loil" ticket was successful. Among other officers elected was the "City Physician." The local paper consoles itself, on his election, with the melancholy satisfaction of reflecting that, by their own act, the Radical voting strength will, in all probability, be considerably reduced before another election.

Senator Trumbull is working upon the Georgia Senatorial case in favor of Joshua Hill, while Senator Edmunds opposes. Gov. Bullock and others hold that the Government of Georgia is provisional until a full delegation in Congress is recognized. Southern as well as Northern Senators will stubbornly resist the admission of Mr. Hill. Dr. Miller cannot expect admission, having been a Surgeon in the rebel army. So says the New York Tribune. Upon which the Express says: "Why not? If Dr. Miller saved a rebel limb or two as surgeon, what did not Holden, of N. C., do, and Gov Brown, of Ga., and the several hundred rebels who have been pardoned because they became Radicals?"

INTEREST ON THE PUBLIC DEBT.

We confess that we were taken somewhat by surprise, by the announcement, on yesterday, that there were no funds in New York to meet the January Interest on the State debt. We are further informed, by a gentleman who visited this city on yesterday, to receive his interest, that "no funds" was all he got. We had supposed that the credit of the State, under Radical rule, was not so far gone, that the amount necessary to meet the January interest, at least, under the resolution of the Legislature, could not be borrowed somewhere.

If this fact does not open the eyes of the Legislature, and of all others concerned, to the utter impossibility of the State's ever paying the lavish expenditures and appropriations, already made and in contemplation, nothing can.

Will the Governor, through his paper, please explain about this interest? He had it given out, officially, a few weeks ago, that it would be paid promptly. In whose interest was that announcement made?—Why has it not been complied with?—What's the matter? Tell us all about it, Governor and Mr. Jenkins!

THE UNIVERSITY.

We learn that at a meeting of the "Executive Committee" of the University, on yesterday, the Rev. Solomon Pool, late Revenue Collector, was elected PRESIDENT of the Institution!!! This selection is hugely farcical.

However, let the "Trustees," and the Legislature, go to work, now, and see what they can do for the education of the white children. We have heard of nothing else, for the past three years, but of schooling and instruction for the negro.

If Queen Victoria lives as long as her grandfather, her reign, it is said, will not close before 1901.

In a suit now carried on in an Illinois town, a large dry-goods case, filled with papers, is daily brought into court.

JUDGE TOURGEE, JUDGE CLOUD, AND THE GRAND JURY OF ORANGE.

We fear that the last named Judge has not fully comprehended the distinction and difference between a presentment and a true bill. If so, he would not have railed at the Grand Jury of Orange, and have sent such angry messages to Judge Tourgee as he did. But railing is said to be a relief to angry minds, and it is to be hoped that the Judge feels alleviated after his displays in that line. We have heard of him, in and out of the cars, on and off the train, sending messages to Judge Tourgee to punish the Grand Jury. In fact, Tourgee never got his "dander" up, until he heard from that able-bodied Jurist, "Judge" Cloud.

Judge Cloud should remember that it is not a true bill that the Grand Jury found against him, under which he is to be punished, but simply a presentment, which they ask his Honor may be spread upon the minutes of the Court, as a "part of the history of the times, and to let political Judges know in what estimation they are held by Grand Jurors." Now reason and humanity revolt at the idea of putting eighteen men in Jail for such an expression of their opinions, for the punishment is entirely out of proportion to the offence.

If Judge Tourgee will write one more letter like his last, he will have no more character for truth than he has for lawlearning.

Witness his departures from truth: He says in his letter, "It has been proclaimed, through the Sentinel, that the Grand Jury did make a regular presentment," &c. No such term as "regular" was used by the Sentinel, but still the truth is so, that the presentment was made, as other presentments were made on Friday—"His Honor" having directed the clerk to receive them in his absence.

FALSE STATEMENT, NO. 2:

"The Governor of this State is denounced as a liar and a scoundrel." No such terms as "liar and scoundrel" were used by the Grand Jury. If, however, Judge Tourgee wishes to test the truth of the first declaration which he has put in the mouths of the Grand Jury, as to the Governor's character for truth, let him empanel a Jury on the next Circuit, and swear Judge Laws, of Orange County of Probate, and Hon. Lewis Hanes, of Salisbury, and Thos. Webb, Esq., late President of the North Carolina Railroad, as witnesses, and see what a verdict the Jury would render!

As to the second count of "scoundrel," which the Grand Jury did not use, if a Jury were seriously to be empanelled to test the truth of that, we would rely for evidence upon the files of the Standard for twenty years; upon the late and early articles there to be found; and, especially, upon that number of the Standard, charging Dr. Hawkins and George W. Mordecai with lying. Particularly, too, upon the Standard of June 5, 1861, asking "who would plot for the head of Abe Lincoln?"

FALSE STATEMENT NO. 3:

"The Chief Justice (he says) is designated as a designing rogue and lying hypocrite." Utterly and infamously false, Tourgee.—The letter of the Chief Justice, simply, is represented as falsifying the truth of history; and so it does.

FALSE STATEMENT NO. 4.

"One of the Justices of the Supreme Court is represented by the Grand Jury (says Tourgee) as the author of a paper which is denominated as infamous, and eighty-eight members of the General Assembly as guilty of inciting to rape, rapine, plunder, murder and arson by the wholesale; and, finally, of giving their (the Grand Jury's) approbation and countenance to an organization formed expressly and declaredly to resist the execution of the law by force."

False all over, and Tourgee knows it. Let any man read the presentment, and he will see how false. We here insert that portion of the presentment:

"The Grand Jury do further present an editorial article in the Daily Standard, of the 19th of September last, entitled "Work," and a certain printed address signed by 88 members of the Legislature, including the Lieut. Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and extensively circulated among the people of the State, and said to have been written by Judge Reade, of the Supreme Court, as infamous productions, calculated to incite to rape, rapine, plunder, murder and arson."

The two papers are spoken of in the same connection. Will even Tourgee deny the infamy of the editorial article of the Standard? Does he mean to justify it? Will he put the Grand Jury in Jail for calling it infamous? Judge Reade is spoken of as the author of the Legislative address. The Commoner from Person, Saml. Barnett, says that he is. Is there any harm in the Grand Jury's repeating it? Shall they go to jail for it? What shall be done with John Ragland, the Radical Commoner from Granville?—Before the assembled people of Granville, he called the address "infamous," and said he would have suffered his right hand to have been cut off, before he would have signed it, and that the man, who would sign such an address, "should be hung with a grape vine untrimmed." Shall Ragland go to jail, or will "your Honor" call on the Legislature, when they convene, to expel him, for saying that eighty-eight of the body should be hung, including the Speakers of both House and Senate?

Our Oxford correspondent henceforth must speak more gently of John Ragland. Radical as he is, it required no small degree of moral courage to stand up and tell his constituents that his colleagues, Cuffee Mayo, R. W. Lassiter and Crawford, "should be hung with a grape vine untrimmed."

FALSE STATEMENT NO. 5.

"No such presentment was made," says the Judge. False, doubly false. "Your Honor" wrote Mr. Laws, the Clerk of the Court, to send you a copy of all the presentments. You have, now, a copy from him, and the original we have seen in the office, since you denied that such a presentment was made.

Having thus detected "his Honor" in five false statements, it is too great a tax upon our charity to believe his statement about that apology made in open Court by Judge Ruffin, the younger.

THE MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH.—It is not necessary to go back to the days of Galileo or Columbus for evidences of incredulous wonder at the propositions of Science or even of bigoted ridicule of the daring of Genius. The spirit with which the idea of the great reality of the present day,—the Magnetic Telegraph,—was received in this country, at the period of its presentation, is almost as liable, all things considered, to the lashings of the historical satirist, as that which put the great Astronomer to the rack or covered the World-Discoverer with derision.

At a dinner given to Prof. Morse, the Inventor of the Telegraph, in the city of New York, a few evenings since, he reproduced, in the course of his remarks on the occasion, the following extract from the proceedings of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States, of Feb. 21, 1843,—only twenty-five years ago,—when that body was asked to authorize a series of experiments to test the merits of his invention:

"On motion of Mr. Kennedy, of Maryland, the committee took up the bill to authorize a series of experiments to be made in order to test the merits of Morse's electro-magnetic telegraph. The bill appropriates $30,000, to be expended under the direction of the Postmaster General.

Mr. Cave Johnson wished to have a word to say upon this bill. As the present Congress had done much to encourage science, he did not wish to see the science of mesmerism neglected and overlooked. He therefore proposed that one-half the appropriation be given to Mr. Fisk, (a gentleman at that time lecturing in Washington on mesmerism,) to enable him to carry on experiments as well as Professor Morse.

Mr. Houston thought that Millerism should also be included in the benefits of the appropriation.

Mr. Stanly said he should have no objection to the appropriation for mesmeric experiments, provided the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. Johnson) was the subject.—(A laugh.)

Mr. Cave Johnson said he should have no objection, provided the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. Stanly) was the operator. (Great laughter.)

Several gentlemen called for the reading of the amendment, and it was read by the Clerk as follows:

Provided, That one-half of the said sum shall be appropriated for trying mesmeric experiments under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

Mr. Mason, of Ohio, rose to a question of order. He maintained that the amendment was not bona fide, and that such amendments were calculated to injure the character of the House. He appealed to the Chair to rule the amendment out of order.

The Chairman said it was not for him to judge of the motives of members in offering amendments, and he could not, therefore, undertake to pronounce the amendment not bona fide. Objections might be raised to it on the ground that it was not sufficiently analogous in character to the bill under consideration; but in the opinion of the Chair it would require a scientific analysis to determine how far the magnetism of mesmerism was analogous to that to be employed in telegraphs—(laughter)—he, therefore, ruled the amendment in order. On taking the vote the amendment was rejected—ayes 23; noes not counted. The bill was then laid aside to be reported."

THE OLDEN TIME IN THE SENATE.—Mr. Greeley reverts to the time when, in 1830, he first looked down upon the Senate from its gallery and beheld there as members, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, John C Calhoun, Silas Wright, John M. Clayton, Thomas H. Benton, Benj. Watkins Leigh, Wm. C. Preston, John J. Crittenden, Willie P. Mangum, John Davis, Thomas Ewing, James Buchanan, Hugh L. White, Felix Grundy, and Samuel L. Southard. This would seem to be a pretty solid array, and Mr. Greeley, on reflection, cannot realize that human progress is forcibly exemplified in a comparison of the present roll of Senators with that of 1830. If so sanguine a philosopher breaks down, we greatly fear the public will be apt to plead a like inability. It is noteworthy that the only two of the above brilliant list who have survived to witness recent party conflicts have not had the slightest sympathy with Radicalism, and all that the others have left on record is equally a protest against the destructive and revolutionary ideas of this organization.

The Tribune hopes that men equally able with Messrs. Hendricks and Buckalew will be chosen to succeed them. As there are no such men in the Radical ranks, this task will be somewhat difficult, and, after all, we suspect, will do as the Tribune fears—fall back on candidates whose "principal qualifications are impudence and money, mainly the former."—National Intelligencer.

PEANUT CULTURE.—Among much other useful and interesting matter in the January (1869) number of the Carolina Farmer, published at Wilmington, is an article "on the mode of planting, culture, sowing, &c., of peanuts." It is from the pen of "N. N. Nixon, Porter's Neck, near Wilmington," and professes to be "the result of an experience of more than fifty years of toil and anxiety." He describes the character of soil best adapted to the peanut, the mode of preparing the land, the planting, the culture and the harvesting. Various localities in Virginia are peculiarly adapted to this crop, and many persons have recently engaged in its cultivation who never did so before. There is in many quarters a strong desire for the information contained in Mr. Nixon's article. He says he has received "innumerable letters of enquiry from persons at a distance and from all points in the South."

Mr. Nixon speaks very encouragingly of the profits of the crop, but expresses the opinion that it can never be made a staple crop for the South, as it is not an article of prime necessity, and the production of it could soon be made to exceed any demand that might ever arise. He tells us that the exports from Wilmington, N. C., from the crop of the past season, will probably range from eighty-five to one hundred thousand bushels. He thinks the largest crop prior to the war ranged between one hundred and forty and one hundred and fifty thousand bushels. The yield of good land varies from thirty to fifty bushels to the acre. He says that peanut culture is very exhausting to the land, and that unless the soil be assisted by the abundant application of manures, a crop, even one year in two, would at last, if not very soon, so exhaust lands that they would not pay the expenses of cultivation. He has for ten or fifteen years pursued the system of raising but one crop of peanuts in three years on the same land, following it with a crop of rye.

A romantic pair in Pennsylvania are blessed with a number of daughters. The eldest was called Caroline, the second Madeline, the third Eveline, the fourth Angeline, when lo! the fifth made its appearance, and no name could be found with the desired termination. Determined, however, to "fight it out on that line if it took all summer," the parents pounced up a name very popular in their neighborhood, and forthwith the baby was called Crin-o-line.

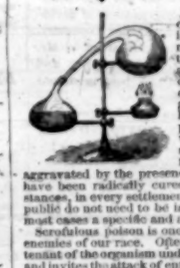
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. So potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved, and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed to have gone with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.
When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to pirate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable. Such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no reliance could be placed on the ordinary liquors of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the Schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the alcoholic element, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the Schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his trade mark, in the United States Circuit Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the parties who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending counterfeit trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these schnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They seem, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the endorsement which his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps have received from the medical profession has been counterfeited by needle-engraving; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements pirated, his circulars stolen, and, worse than all, unscrupulous retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with chemical gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public the medical profession and the sick for whom the celebrated Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these infamous practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Rotterdam, Holland, is distilled from a mash of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and druggists in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is the grossly palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say that he has proceeded, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guards and safeguards, which he designed should prevent the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor

PROCEEDINGS OF BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.

RALEIGH, Dec. 30, P. M.

At the regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners, held this evening, there were present: Col. William H. Harrison, Mayor; J. P. Adams, A. L. Lougee, W. R. Richardson, H. Lockhart, C. L. Harris, P. Thiem, J. H. Harris and J. Fisher, Commissioners.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

The Committee appointed on the renting of the booths or stalls, on the South side of the Market, reported that they had fixed the rent at $8 each, and that the balance paid by renters be refunded by the officer who collected the rent.

The Chief of Police, who was required, at the last meeting, to examine and test the scales and balances of the butchers, reported that he had performed that duty and found them all correct.

On motion, a Committee was appointed to audit and settle the books and accounts of the City Treasurer, Collector, Chief of Police, Assistant, Weigh Master, &c.

The following persons were appointed poll holders for the approaching Municipal election, viz:

For Middle Ward:—Edward Teasley, Mayor's box; D. A. Wicker, Commissioners box.

East Ward:—V. Ballard, Mayor's box; John E. Williams, Commissioners box.

West Ward:—Charles Upchurch, Mayor's box; W. H. Anderson, Commissioners box.

On motion of J. H. Harris, it was ordered that if any of the persons appointed to hold said elections fail to serve, the Mayor be authorized to fill the vacancies.

On motion, Mr. Osborn Holt was re-appointed Sexton for 1869, at a salary of $250.

On motion, it was ordered that the Registration Books be opened on Friday and Saturday, the 1st. and 2nd. of January, and on Saturday night until 10 o'clock.

On motion, the parties conducting the registration were allowed $3 per day for their services.

On motion, F. G. King, Esq., was re-appointed Weigh Master, and allowed two-thirds of the proceeds for his services.

On motion, Mr. King was released from the payment of $13,25, balance due the City on account of Scales for 1868.

The following accounts were read and allowed:

George Scales,	Night-Watch	$52.50.

Mr. Gallagher petitioned the Board to give him an outlet to his premises, &c.

On motion, referred to the Commissioners from the Middle Ward, requesting them to examine the premises and report forthwith.

Mr. Wm. D. Upchurch petitioned the Board, to be recommended to the County Commissioners as a suitable person to have a license to retail spirituous liquors by the small measure, at his place of business on Wilmington street. Granted.

Mr. J. F. Jones had permission to remove his license to the corner of Wilmington and Hargett streets; and, also, to run the Bowling Alley at the same place.

Messrs. J. J. Overby and A. N Upchurch had permission to remove their licenses to their respective places of business.

On motion of Mr. Richardson, the Clerk was allowed $50, extra pay for 1868.

On motion of Handy Lockhart, Calvin Strickland was allowed $8 on account of his property being over taxed; also Emily Jones was allowed $1.

Mr. Richardson offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Bard tender to his Honor, the Mayor, their thanks for the impartial manner in whichhe has discharged his duties.

On motion the Board adourned.

J. J. CHRISTOPHERS, Clerk.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.—By order of the Board of Commissioners Registration was resumed in this City, onesterday. Up to last evening, the new registration was about one hundred, andnearly equally divided.

The books will remai open to-day, and until 10 o'clock to-night,—which will be the last chance.

CITY MORTALITY.—The City Sexton reports the following as th number of interments in the Cemetery whin the year 1868, viz:

Males,	white	3
"	colored	0.....93
Females,	whites	9
"	colored	9.....78
Total		171

It will be seen that th mortality of the negro population is about two to one of the white.

FINE OYSTERS.—Thanks to Messrs. W. H. Lyon & Co., Market Squre, for a lot of fine Norfolk Oysters. They receive them daily, sell them at moderate rices, and we can testify that they are fat, ne and luscious.

SOBER ALL THE TIME.—The members of the Legislature will be pleased to hear that the Speaker of the Hous, Joseph William, has kept altogether sobe during their absence,—that is, so far aswe know or have heard. Now we don't popose, in making this announcement, to imitate Judge Tourgee by suppressing or hiding the truth, and, therefore, we say that we have neither seen, nor heard, nor inqired after, Joseph. If he has been drunk, its to no sort of an Editor's duty to publis him. But one good turn deserves another.

When Joseph and hisdear father edited the Standard, we were ften, and for years, published as taking the "red eye,"—figuring in the bar rooms at Washington, "breaking our tickler," &c., &c., &c.; yet these two pinks of editorial courtesy knew that we were but little given to drink and never to intoxication. Now, Joseph, we edit, and we say, let us have sobriety as well as "peace"; or if you get drunk, the public may hear of it. We bore in silence these imputations upon us, without contradicting them, for we knew they could not hurt.

IT IS EVEN SO.—Governor,—we mean, Col.—Harris has formally taken possession of the Executive Mansion and hung up his hat therein. The law requires that the Governor shall reside there. But then the law requires the Supreme Court to be held in a certain room of the Capitol, and it has, nevertheless, been sent up to the cuddy, to make way for old Buzzard-Bay Ashley, the carpet-bagger. And so the Superintendent of Public Works has gone to live at the Governor's Mansion,—on the plea, we suppose, that it is a part of his official duty to look after it. His office is a sinecure, anyhow, but this is piling it on rather too thick.

It is rumored that "Gov." Holden's reason for declining to live in the Mansion is that it is unsafe, in view of the condition of the walls. Is it possible that the "Governor" can have any design upon his Superintendent of Public Works?

DON'T CALL HIM SO.—We heard a citizen of New York, the other day, expressing great suprise at Mr. Laflin's being called "General," in North Carolina. He said: "The South would have whipped us like the d—l with any such Generals." Show your commission, Mr. Laflin. We fear that this is one of Holden's tricks to give you importance.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—Although requested, by many of my friends, to run for Commissioner in the Middle Ward, (which request was duly made known in your paper,) I beg leave to ask you to announce my withdrawal as a candidate for the office.

As so many candidates are in the field, on the Conservative side, I feel that some one of us should withdraw, in order to prevent our city from being under Radical rule.

Very Respectfully,

A. N. McKIMMON.

THE LATE REV. HENRY HARDIE.—A correspondent of the Fayetteville Presbyterian pays the following just tribute to our late estimable friend and fellow-citizen, the Rev. Henry Hardie, which we take pleasure in transferring to our columns:

"I was much gratified at your editorial notice of the death of the Rev. Henry Hardie, late Bible Society Agent for the State of North Carolina. I can fully confirm all you said of his efficiency as an agent, and usefulness as a ready writer in unfolding the varied and almost unlimited resources of the Old North State, which he so dearly loved. But the most pleasing memorial of our brother was his beautiful and consistent character as "a man of God."—Retiring in his manners almost to a fault, and exceedingly sensitive, he never took that position he was entitled to among his brethren, but was content to let his light shine in the humbler walks of like. He possessed in a remarkable degree the confidence of the poor and particularly of the Freedmen, which they always manifested by flocking to hear him whenever it was known he would preach for them. Especially in his late sickness did his christian virtues unfold themselves to all whose privilege it was to behold him. To use the language of one who witnessed his last sufferings, "his trusting confidence in the all sufficiency of the atonement of Jesus for sin, and the touching love he manifested for the Saviour, were beautiful to beheld. A more Christian death-bed—a more trusting heart in God's precious promises—a more serene mind—a more beautiful sunset of life's stormy and troublous day, can scarcely be imagined." Oh! that his God may continue to be the husband to the widow and the Father to his children, is the prayer of one who knew him well."

Three sisters were lately married at Dubuque, Iowa, on the same evening. An economical procedure.

There will be twelve Quakers in the new English Parliament, all but one supporters of Mr. Gladstone.

For the Sentinel.

GOLDSBORO', Dec. 31, 1868.

MR. EDITOR:—Our citizens are in doubt here as to their rights and duties on next Monday—the day of our Municipal election. It is understood, pretty generally, that all citizens of the town, heretofore registered, have the right to vote without re-registering; and that only those, not heretofore registered, are required to register.

As we have not seen the "act to provide for the registration of voters in all special elections in the State," we desire to know whether challenges of unlawful voters may be made at the polls, on the day of election?

Please answer these questions, adding such other information, of a general or special character, as you may deem essential to promote the ends of justice and honest, conservative dealing—which are but two names for the same thing.

FAIR PLAY.

[We publish below the only two acts bearing upon the subject of Municipal elections, of which we are cognizant. The bill on the subject of "registration," to which our correspondent refers, failed, if we are not mistaken, to become a law. So that the two acts here given, and the existing law on the subject of Registration, will afford all the information we have in our possession:]

AN ACT IN RELATION TO PROVISIONAL MUNICIPAL OFFICERS.

SEC. 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That all municipal offices of any city, town or incorporated village in the State, which have been filled under the Provisional Government since the close of the war, by election or appointment, be, and are hereby declared vacant, and the Governor is directed hereby to fill such offices with appointees, who shall hold such offices and discharge the functions thereof until an election may be held under the Constitution of North Carolina.

SEC. 2. That in all cities, towns and incorporated villages, an election for municipal officers shall be held on the first Monday of January next, and regularly each year thereafter.

SEC. 3. The officers to be appointed by the Governor shall attend to the registration of voters in said municipal corporations, and hold the elections above provided for.

SEC. 4. All charters, laws, acts and parts of acts, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are repealed.

SEC. 5. Any provisional officer refusing to comply with the provisions of this act, and deliver his office, books, papers, records, &c., to his successor duly elected or appointed and qualified, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be fined not more than five thousand dollars, nor less than one thousand dollars, and imprisonment at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Ratified the 24th day of July, A. D. 1868.

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE HOLDING OF MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SEC. 1. That no person not actually residing within the corporate limits of any town in this State shall be entitled to vote therein in any municipal election or to hold any municipal office in said town.

SEC. 2. An actual residence of ten days, within the corporate limits of any town in this State, shall constitute any citizen of the United States a qualified voter therein, in any municipal election, and such qualified voter shall be eligible to any municipal office within said corporation; Provided, that said person is in other respects a qualified voter in the State.

SEC. 3. All acts or charters, or parts of the same, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act shall go into effect from and after its ratification.

CURIOUS CASE OF ABSENT-MINDEDNESS. A few days ago a youth sitting in a Camp street car, in close proximity to an elderly gentleman of respectable appearance, to guard against the unpleasant consequences of an incipient catarrh, put his hand (as he supposed) into a side pocket of his overcoat, drew out a handkerchief and wiped his nose, and then replaced it in the pocket from which it was taken. "Young gentleman," remarked the elderly party at his side to the youth, in a voice unpleasantly distinct to every body in the car, "that is the most infernally impudent trick that I ever saw perpetrated!" "What, saw I?" exclaimed the astonished youth. "I say, sir," said the old gentleman with increasing irateness, "that taking another person's handkerchief from his pocket and wiping your nose with it, and then putting it back, without so much as saying 'by your leave,' is the d—dest piece of impudence I ever experienced!" Light immediately beamed upon the mind of the astounded youth, who, in view of the increasing tempestuousness of his neighbor, incontinently left his seat and retreated from the car in the midst of a shout of merriment from the remaining passengers.—N. O. Crescent.

POLITE.—A young author, reading a tragedy, perceived his auditor very often pull off his hat at the end of a line, and asked him the reason. "I cannot pass an old acquaintance," replied the critic, "without that civility."

Assignee's Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

THE LAND BELONGING to Dr. M. T. Ponton will be offered at public sale, by his assignee in bankruptcy, on THURSDAY, the 14th of January next, at 11 o'clock A. M.

The sale will take place at the residence of Dr. Ponton the land will be put up, without reserve, to the highest bidder, for CASH, and no postponement will be made.

The land contains about sixteen hundred acres, is situated near the town of Halifax, N. C, on Great and Little Quankey Creeks and partly on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The soil is naturally free and fertile, but has been much reduced by bad tillage There are large quantities of marl on some of the land, and all of it can be easily improved and made good Corn and Cotton land. Much of it is well adapted to truck farming, and nearly the whole of it is equal to any in America for the cultivation of the grape. To any person who desires to invest capital in "Grape Culture," no better opportunity can be offered.

The land will be sold in several separate tracts. In one of which there is the best mill site in Halifax county, affording an inexhaustible supply of water power, with building stone sufficient for the erection of dams and mills.

Dr. Ponton will take pleasure in guiding persons over the land, who may wish to inspect it with a view to purchase.

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $330,942 08.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance and their aim will be to make the "southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY, OF NEW YORK.

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over

FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS,

the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

THE REGULAR ANNUAL MEETING of the Stockholders of the RALEIGH NATIONAL BANK OF N

The Daily Sentinel.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 2, 1869

THE GATHERING HOME.

They are gathering homeward from every land,
One by one,
As their weary feet touch the shining strand,
One by one.
Their brows are enclosed in a golden crown,
Their travel-stained garments are all laid down,
And clothed in white garments they rest on the mead,
Where the Lamb doth love his chosen to lead,
One by one.

Before they rest they pass through the strife,
One by one;
Through the waters of death they enter life,
One by one.
To some are the floods of the river still,
As they ford on their way to the heavenly hill;
To others the waves run fiercely and wild;
Yet they reach the home of the undefiled,
One by one.

We, too, shall come to the river side,
One by one,
We are nearer its waters each eventide,
One by one.
We can hear the noise and dash of the stream
Now, and again, through our life's deep dream;
Sometimes the floods all the banks overflow,
Sometimes in ripples and small waves go,
One by one.

Jesus, Redeemer, we look unto Thee,
One by one,
We lift up our voices tremblingly,
One by one.
The waves of the river are dark and cold,
We know not the place where our feet may hold.
Thou who did'st pass through its deep midnight,
Strengthen us, send us the staff and the light,
One by one.

Plant Thou Thy feet beside as we tread,
One by one,
On Thee let us lean each drooping head.
One by one.
Let but Thy strong arm around us be twined,
We shall cast our fears and cares to the wind.
Saviour, Redeemer, with Thee full in view,
Smilingly, gladsomely, shall we pass through,
One by one.

A QUAKER WEDDING.

A Quaker wedding is a novelty to the world's people, and as such we present our readers with a detailed description of one which recently took place in the enterprising town of Harrison, Westchester County, in spite of the persecution which the Quakers suffered in early times at the hands of the Puritans, New England still contains many of them, who exactly resemble their ancestors in every particular save that they have larger and better filled purses. But there is the same simplicity of dress, language and manners, and when a young Friend marries a Friend (less!) maiden, he does it in the simple style which prevails among Friends and Quakers. In other words he marries himself!

Last Tuesday evening, at the residence of Friend John Seamen, in Harrison, Westchester County, Mr. Eugene U. Lorton, of this city, married himself to Miss Amy T. Mosher, of Greenwich, Connecticut.

Beneath the mirror, in the front parlor, a sofa had been placed for the bride and groom, and upon either side were chairs for the best man and woman. The friends and relatives being assembled the best man and woman entered the back parlor followed by the bridal pair. They walked the entire length of the parlors, and amid a profound silence took the seats designed for them.—For about five minutes, during which a silent prayer is supposed to have been offered, no one spoke or moved. The bride sat like a statue with downcast eyes blushing perceptibly. The whole scene appeared more like a tableau than an ordinary wedding ceremony. After enduring the silence as long as seemed desirable, the bridegroom and bride arose, taking each other by the right hand, when the bridegroom said:

"In the presence of the Lord, and these people, I take thee, Amy, to be my wife, promising by the Divine assistance to be unto thee a loving and faithful husband, until death doth part us."

Then Amy said the same words to Eugene stumbling at the word "husband."—At the conclusion of this part of the ceremony the company was again seated, and silence reigned pro'ound. The bride was dressed after the ordinary fashion, in white cashmere, en train, trimmed with white satin, pompadour waist, lace underwaist, veil orange flowers.

During the silence succeeding the ceremony an opportunity was offered for any of the friends to address the people, if the spirit moved. After waiting some time, a quiet motherly looking lady made the following ejaculation:

"This is indeed a very solemn ceremony, and we all need the Divine assistance in living up to it's requirements."

Another period of silence and the bridegroom arose and kissed the bride, whereupon the best man and woman did the same things.—New York Mail.

READ STATEMEMENT

BY PERMISSION, I publish the following receipt and statement of settlement of Policy No 81,927, for $5,000, on the life of Mrs. M. S Hutchinson. The insurance had not been in force six months at the time of the decease of the insured.

"Received at Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 18th, 1868, of S. D. Wait, General Agent of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, five thousand one hundred and forty-two dollars, in full payment of Policy No. 81,927 and dividend, and I hereby surrender all right title and interest in the same to said Company.

(signed) JOHN HUTCHINSON,
Of Newbern, N. C."

It will be seen by the above although the party had been insured but six months, yet one-half the premium was cancelled by an anticipated dividend. In this staunch old Company, Policies are paid in full, deducting only the interest on notes from last payment until time of death of the assured.

This Company exercises great care in the selection of its risks, and although the Company has been represented in this State nearly two years, and has been doing an extensive business, the above is its first loss.

THE Sentinel.

PUBLISHED AT THE

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.—

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

FIRST CLASS NEWSPAPER.

THE CLOTHIER,

ONE DOOR SOUTH OF TUCKER HALL,

Is the recognized leader of the Retail Clothing Trade in Raleigh.

Strangers in the City will find it to their advantage to call in and get a

WINTER OUTFIT.

THE REASONS WHY:—Here is the LARGEST ASSORTMENT in Raleigh,

Here is the STYLE;

Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;

Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

Great pains taken in fitting the customer, and polite attention shown under all circumstances.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMPLETE. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at the present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of the General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of the act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this state, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall hereafter in each year at the times hereinafter stated, to-wit, shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.
